

PRIVACY POLICY

Changing Social (collectively, “Changing Social”, “We”, “Us”, or “Our”) is committed to protecting the privacy of our customer’s personal information. This statement applies with respect to the information that we collect from the company website, located at changingsocial.com and changingsocial.co.uk. Amendments to this statement will be posted at this URL and will be effective when posted. Your continued use of this site following the posting of any amendment, modification or change shall constitute your acceptance thereof.

DATA PROTECTION

Changing Social will not collect any personally identifiable information about you (e.g. your name, address, telephone number or email address) unless you provide it to us voluntarily. Given that the Internet is a global environment, using the Internet to collect and process personal data necessarily involves the transmission of data on an international basis. Therefore, by browsing this website and communicating electronically with us, you acknowledge and agree to our processing of personal data in this way. If you have already submitted personal data and would like it removed from our records, please contact us at the e-mail address listed at the bottom of this section. We will use all reasonable efforts to delete your information from our records.

Any information you provide to Changing Social (“data”) will be put onto the Changing social database and used by us to process your membership, for marketing purposes, market research and in order to contact you or send you information. By submitting your data to us you agree to our storage and use of the data. In some cases, we may collect information about you that is not personally identifiable. This type of information includes the type of Internet browser you are using, the type of computer operating system you are using and the domain name of the website from which you linked to our site.

DISCLOSURE

Changing Social may disclose your personal information if we are required by law to do so or if you violate our Terms of Service. Occasionally, we may use certain trusted third party business partners to perform Site-related services (including, hosting and, maintenance services, database management, Web analytics, and improvement of the Site’s features). We will share your personally identifiable information with these third parties, but only to the extent necessary to perform these functions and provide such services, and only pursuant to binding contractual obligations requiring such third parties to maintain the confidentiality of your data.

If Changing Social is involved in a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or a portion of its assets, including a sale in bankruptcy, we may share some or all of your information with this entity.
